“ She was the most amazing little creature. The amount of love and happiness she was able to bring to our family in such a short time was incredible. We are heart broken but will always treasure her memory.

Athena and Alex bonded from day one. Athena knew nothing but love after moving to the Wells home. She will be missed by many and her memories will always make us smile. When your heart is broken, filling it with happy memories can help. Nana

You were blessed by each other. Having Athena in your home for a little while is still better than never having had her in your lives. She will remain in your hearts forever. Thinking of you all with Love, Sis/Aunt Carr
