Balto was sooo excited to see me every time I visited. Always had lots of hugs and kisses for me. And he always knew I had lots of treats for him! I will definitely miss him.

God placed a rainbow outside our house last evening. I now have peace knowing you have made it to the other side of The Rainbow Bridge. I imagine you you running freely through the meadows of Heaven, joyfully playing. You are loved more than you will ever know, sweet puppa. We will play again one day ??
