My dearest Buttons,

I will miss sitting, with you, three days a week. I got use to being with you; you got use to my being there, with you. Giving you your treats and food, everytime, I came.

You, really, did love your pepperoni.

Rest in peace, my dear Butzie!

Your friend and sitting Buddy,

Joan Midlo and cat friends

My little buttons. You are going to be missed so much at home. You brought so much joy and love to us in the past 15 1/2 years. Memories of eating breakfast supper and evening treats together was something you looked forward to and sitting in your special chair and sleeping. While I read my book. Also greeting family and friends at gatherings at our home and waiting for me to come from work. remembering going for walks once in a while with you and your buddy Dave but I couldn't keep up with both of you. you will be missed butzie. as hard as it was to lose you iam glad I was holding you as you passed. . Love you baby girl

You were the cutest little thing. I hated when I had to take you to the doctor, you would shake so much and your eyes would get bloodshot. When we would go to see cousins you would become the Alfa dog with ruby who was 10 times bigger than you. Bubba was not to sure about you, but would never hurt you. You will be missed so so much, but never forgotten. Your now with Dave and Gram take long walks. You will always be in our hearts.

Oh sweet little “Butzie” you will be missed by all of your cousins. We will miss your sassy, spunky personality. You may have been small in size, but you had such a huge presence. We know that you are with Uncle Dave, Grandma and Maggie. Although our hearts will be heavy without you, we all know that we will see you again.
