“ Little peanut...today is 2 years that you are in heaven. Cadie, it still hurts. We gave you tons of love and did everything medically possible for you. I just hope you know how much we love you. I loved how you would wait at top of steps when dad would come home and your sweet little ears would perk up cause dad would slide his hand under the door and your tail would go crazy wagging. I miss how you would beat me to the front door when I was leaving from a visit because you wanted mom or dad to take you outside to see me off when I would leave. You looked so beautiful in your sweaters in winter time that mom would put on you....especially the aqua one and the one with the heart. You were the most loving precious little girl. Always so sweet and you were absolutely perfect. You are the reason Matt and Bethany got Harley...we remember when we were at dining room table and you in your sweet little way stood up and gently pawed at Matt...you were are real sweetheart. I know you are in heaven with Mikey and Harley. I hope you are sunning yourself and I know you are free of pain, but I so selfishly want you back. We love you little peanut....we will see you again. As mom always told you every night....good night our angel. Love always, mom, dad, chris and kristen

“ To my beautiful peanut. Today is one year that you went to doggie heaven. It's still so empty without you. I still wish I could feel your beautiful ears or take you for a ride in my car...or watch your fast tail wags as you walk me out to the car when I would leave the house. I love you so much sweet Cadie....I always will my Angel. I hope you are running around in heaven playing with your brother being carefree. Love you baby girl.

“ Hi my sweet peanut. Today is 6 months that you went to heaven. It doesn't seem that long. It's so hard without you. I keep looking at alllll the videos and pictures I have of you. I have been dreaming about you and petting you and in my dreams, you look so happy and healthy. I think it's your way of telling me you are ok. So I heard the song today by Luke Combs, even though your leaving. I heard that song the day you passed away and it makes me cry and miss you. I just love you so much Cadie girl. Forever and ever. There is not a day I do not think about you. I love you my Angel.

“ Hi my sweet Cadie girl. Tomorrow would have been your 13th birthday. You would have been barking for your cake with the candles lit as we would sing to you. It's still so hard without you here. I'm still lost and I deeply miss you and petting your beautiful ears. It's still just as hard without you as it was the day you passed. I know you are in heaven my angel. We are going to celebrate your birthday this year, just differently. You were a one of a kind. I will love you forever my baby, and I will see you again someday. Happy Birthday in heaven my sweet angel.

“ Just thinking of you today my sweet peanut since it's so sunny. You would've been outside sunning yourself rolling in the grass with that smile on your face. People tell me that time heals all wounds. I dont think that applies here my baby. I wish you were here. I love you.

“ Our sweet little Cadie peanut....we miss you so much. You were the most loving sweet little girl. I will cherish every moment we had together and the moments we spent until your last breath. Our bond was incredible. I will always remember our car rides that you loved so much, the way you would jump up on my bed and lay across me to claim me as yours in the mornings, giving you eggs and bacon on sundays, watching you in the yard sunning yourself and your beautiful ears blowing in the wind. I know you are in doggie heaven and playing with Cami happy and free of any pain. I will see you again my angel. I love you with all my heart. Love you always...Kristen
