Little Mooshka (Chi Chi) was the cutest. Her photogenic self and the many poses and expressions gave me and many others daily smiles. How versatile she was to be of Mexican decent with Russian nick name, whats not to love. I know how very much she was loved by you and Jamie and my heart does break for you. We love all of our fur babies but then once in awhile, that one special one comes along and they fill your heart in a different way. I believe Mooshka was that for you. You loving her was the best gift that could have ever been given. She was loved, and she loved you back. She is running now without pain or illness and happy for the life you have given her. She will be smiling when she sees you again. I will miss her as well. RIP little Mooshka.

You went by many names , but Meatloaf was my favorite . I loved all the pics your mommy would post of you , and the videos of you always being hungry and not wanting to take walks . You were one of the most loved dogs and will be greatly missed . Rip sweet chi chi
