Curley, God seen you getting tired and a cure was not to be. Now that your in heaven an Angel you will be to spread your wings for all eternity. Ill always remember curley the 1st time i met you and your dad you came into my yard and plump down in the grass and i gave you a treat. I love you curley and you will always have a special place in my heart.??

Saying Goodbye to a Beloved furbaby is never easy, for they take a part of your heart with them so they can forever be tied to you and you to them. Curley has left this earth but he will forever be in your *heart and memories where the Love, Joy, and Companionship will forever live on.

So Very Sorry for your Loss.
Rest In Peace sweet Curley*

We will love you forever. You gave us 12 wonderful years. We have such good memories of you that will never be forgotten. There wasn't one person who knew you that didn't love you. Now your with

Uncle Nick, Aunt Carol & Aunt Toots, all who loved you so much. I'm sure someone has a Frisbee to play with. I know Carol will give you your yogurt at midnight. Now you will be able to run again. RIP Curley, .Love forever Mom & Dad

Curley was an Angel on earth. Our hearts break for your loss Mom & Dad, but I just look at ALL of the LOVE and HAPPINESS that Curley brought, to not just yinz, but everyone who knew him. Yinz gave him a great home and life, and he couldn't have been more happy and he did soooo much good for you, Mom and Dad, he was truly a Godsent. Even Annie and him pretended to not like each other, but they liked teasing the other. He's one of your Guardian Angels now and he's running and playing again, and someday we'll all reunite with him. Until then, you know A. Carol & U. Nick & A. Toots will be keeping him active and happy. He loved yinz soooo much, when your sad, try to think about that and the great memories you've made with him that you'll cherish forever. All of our Love, Cindy & Johnny & Annabelle. {{HUGS}} XOXO
