“ To my sweet baby girl, I haven't known a day without you for nearly a decade. From your sweet but demanding cuddles, the way you cleaned my face when I was sad, to you stealing my yogurt, you have brought me nothing but joy and love. Life won't be the same without my constant companion and soul tie. Rest easy and know that you were so loved.

“ Elphie was born to two of my cats, Magpie and Bartholomew. As a kitten, she always looked so concerned that we dubbed her Concernicus and she stayed a perpetual kitten. I'm so glad that she was loved her whole life by Sam and Mike, and the last few years by Sarah as well. I'm privileged to have loved her, myself, and been able to be a part of her life. I hope she meets up with her uncle in whatever afterlife we have.

“ Forever in my heart my little meepsymoo!! Ill miss our cuddles and you trying to eat your favorites off me like cheese and yogurt. You've been the best baby ever and no one can ever replace the love and memories we cherish and hold for you! Ill always remember how cute and sassy you were and home feels a little different now but your memories will always be apart in our home and lives!! Love you babygirl ☐☐
