“ Mr General.... You took a piece of my  big guy. Aunt Patty is really going to miss those visits . You certainly let me know I had to stop at the fence to love on you. Standing so tall and voicing your opinion to let me know it was time to come see you . I AM REALLY GONNA MISS YOU BUDDY. Rest easy.

“ When General and Bentley were just pups meeting for the first time and running around together in the yard was so cute, you could tell how much fun they had. Then recently when he got to meet baby Sophia Jo and he just sniffed her and wanted to snuggle her and kiss her. He was literally such a great boy. Gentle, fun, full of life, and so sweet. He will be missed and loved forever!

“ There was a weekend where we had a get together at the Hatfield House. My bestfriend was laying on top of me as a joke, and General HAD to get in on it, so he licked us both and then tried to make his way into the pile too!!! We'll miss you General!!!!-Tinaaaa
