“ to my beloved ginger

another morning begins without you letting u out to the front yard to bark & chase squirrels:: no more joy of listening to your barking hello to everyone:: running free & happy the hapiness & joy u gave me i will never forget:you was a precious gift from a friend, that i will always tresure i tried the best i could to make your older yrs so much better for u, i know time heals, but, my pain & sorrow will always be there: i loved you & miss u so much & it hurts to see you are gone from me, maybe, we will be together again, i so, hope so, i miss & love you, my baby girl ginger, i hope & pray u are in peace your best friend::::J K
