“ Although the time we hung out was short, you were the first person to greet me at the door. When everyone else is asleep, you would grunt and enjoy beer with me

“Ging 💔 The hardest but best secret I’ve ever had to keep was Dawn telling me “we’re getting a puppy but you CANNOT TELL NIK, want to see her?!” ☐ Thankful that ging got to be such a big part of my life. The sweetest girl, rest easy. We love you 🌈☐

“ my baby girl, words cannot describe how loved you were, not just by our family but every single person and animal that had the privilege to meet you. i miss you so endlessly, you were the only thing that never judged me for my stupid teenage choices (coming in at 2am, the huge sheetz bags i would tote home that you would almost always get leftovers of, and everything else under the sun.) every time you heard the fridge door open you knew you were getting a piece of cheese or salami, or even just the crinkle of a chip bag would wake you up out of a dead sleep because you knew we were going to share with you. my beautiful girl, even in your older years, i would still catch a glimpse of the little brown dog that we brought home for my tenth birthday, especially when you would tilt your head at a word you had never heard of. i don't think i will ever be able to find another pet just like you, stubborn, kind, and so easygoing. some days during summer break, i would bring you outside with me to sunbathe while i tried to tan (and failed miserably most of the time) and you would always just sit there, so content and so at peace with yourself and the world around you. i hope that in heaven, that is every single day for you with no pain and legs that work because you deserve that and you always have. i love you so much, my stinky, fat, brown dog ❤️.

“ My Girl - Ginger Joy... The house is so different without you. Your kitty siblings (Ozzy especially), were looking for you. You can just feel the heaviness. We miss you so much but we know you were in pain. We love you and we know you loved us too. Even when your stubbornness drove us crazy and you refused to move out of the way, or come inside. Thank you for almost 11 years of love. ❤️
