“ Her untouchable belly. Don't even think about it! The sweetest kitty ever with a criminal record. Thanks very much to Rich for his eloquent words when there are no words. 💔

“ Today we lost our family member, friend and little snuggler, Huxley. She didn't give her love freely but for those she deemed worthy she could be as sweet and charming as anybody. Always too cool for her own good, she still couldn't help herself to a good game of peekaboo. Her favorite sport to watch on TV was hockey, I think because she wanted to be out there on the ice chasing the puck (or, knowing her, giving a good check and getting into a scrum). She was the first to greet us at the door, with a couple of silent meows, and was sure to show us where her treats were, in case we forgot. The local hawks will have to do a bit more hunting on their own now that our favorite little murderer isn't giving them a constant supply of fresh meat.

To me she was my buddy and will never be replaced and i will never be able to look at a little bow without thinking about her. I'm sure going to miss our late night and early morning snuggle sessions. I love you Hux-a-Lux.
