TO

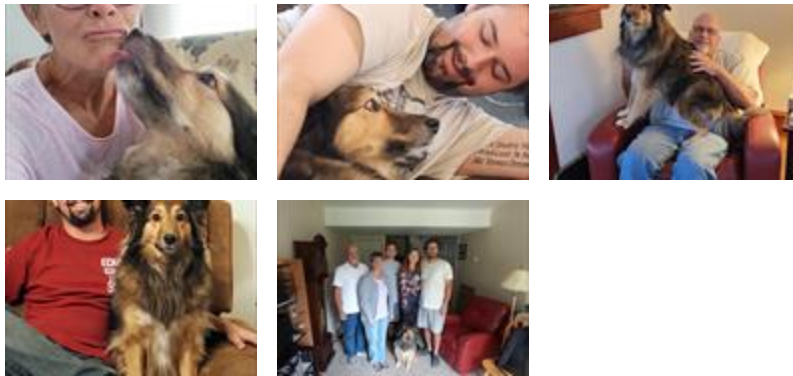

“ *Iris was our first grand-dog and she will always hold a special place in our heart. She was loyal friend to Ben and was always there to brighten his day. Iris and I would spend evenings together on the sofa when Ben would fly to see his Mom (while Nancy was on summer vacation in Florida). Our lives have been richer as a result of her unconditional love!
Hope you love the pictures!*

“ From the time she was born, Iris stole Ben’s heart. I was always so impressed with the level of trust and devotion they placed in one another. Ben, you did an amazing job giving her the best life imaginable. She loved you beyond compare as much as you loved her. I knew that in some of those low moments, she was the one that gave you the reason to push forward. Her love was nonjudgmental, unconditional, and unwavering which gave me great comfort. She truly was your “Sweet Girl”. I will miss her dearly, but know that she will be waiting to see me along with Ginger, Skeeter, Misty, Shadow, and Max. “Hey, Iris, want to play ball?” Love, Grandma.

“ Iris was an amazing companion. I love her deeply, and she will always be with me. She went to so many amazing events, held by loving and awesome people that allowed her to brighten every life she entered. She kept me going and gave me purpose when I found none on my own, and through her love I feel like I can going, even when she can't greet me quite like she used to. I love you Iris, my Sweet Girl
