

Jaspar Soisson

June 1, 2009 - October 15, 2024

Jaspar, also known as Jaspar Jax and Handsome Boy and sometimes Sluggo passed away peacefully on Tuesday, October 15, 2024. He left his 2 mommies broken hearted.

Jaspar was the happiest boy we ever had and always carried his tail straight up in the air, full of joy and spunk. He had the most piercing and loving blue eyes, silky soft locks and the sweetest, gentle demeanor even though many thought he looked grumpy all the time, he was anything but. Jaspar came into our lives in July 2009 along with his sister Jacy who passed in December 2023. They were completely inseparable and spent each day and night side by side. You had us at meow, and you stole our hearts; we fell in love with you.

Jaspar was more than twice the size of Jacy, yet he let his little sister rule the roost, always. You gave and shared your love unconditionally with both of your mommies. You had your daily routines with each of us and every little habit of living life with you is dearly missed as we look for you with every step we take. You won't be waiting at the door for us to get home and we won't hear your voice urging us to hurry up and get your treats. We were blessed to have you share your love with us and that you lived your life on your terms. After being on high blood pressure medication for 2 1/2 years and being broken hearted over losing your sister, you suddenly and without warning took your final breath and we did not have to make that difficult decision down the road when your life would become painful to live.

We are empty nesters for the very first time. The heartache is just unbearable with losing you, our last baby. We hope that your sisters Jacy, Jordan and Jedi met you at the Rainbow Bridge. Jaspar, our baby boy, we will always be missing you and singing lullabies to you. Jaspar, you will live forever in our hearts and our memories until we meet again.
