“ My sweet angel although our time together was short it was the happiest I've ever been ❤️
When I heard of the terrible life you had I knew that I was meant to save you and knowing that you died loved, happy and safe is the only comfort I have.. I mourn the loss of the beautiful life we could have had together and will cherish the time we did.
Coco misses you so much.

“ Although you weren't with us long you will be missed especially by your big sis Coco. Never forgotten and forever missed. I wish I had the chance to meet you but somehow it feels like I always did know you thanks to your mommy posting all the pics of you and coco. 💔💔💔😭

The sweetest little thing I ever met. Jennnayaaa gave me a new outlook on bunnies after having a bad experience with one. She was so calm and agile and most importantly she made my best friend so happy. Rest in paradise Jennnayaaa you and your mommy will meet again one day. ❤️🐰
