“ One of the best videos! You were certainly talented Bumpers. The house is REALLY quiet without you.

“ No one ever guesses right the first time when I tell this tale.. “A cat, a Chocolate Lab, and a min pin are all in the same room inside my house. One of these three jumps in the air and snatches a bird in mid-air.” Who is the culprit?? Spoiler.. it was YOU!!

Who writes an obituary for their dog that they were filming as they struggle to climb a gate to escape what appears to be you and falls to its death This is why they should do background checks before allowing people to adopt animals because of people like you

“ Oh Bummers!! Where do I begin... I loved you from the moment I saw your picture.. Often I hear that I saved you, when the truth was you my love, saved me 😭. I'm already so lost without you!! I hope you've made it safely to the rainbow bridge my sweet boy. I hope you're running free chasing birds, bunnies, rabbits, and whatever else your little heart desires! Love you forever 🥺💔!! Mommy
