

Junior Linn

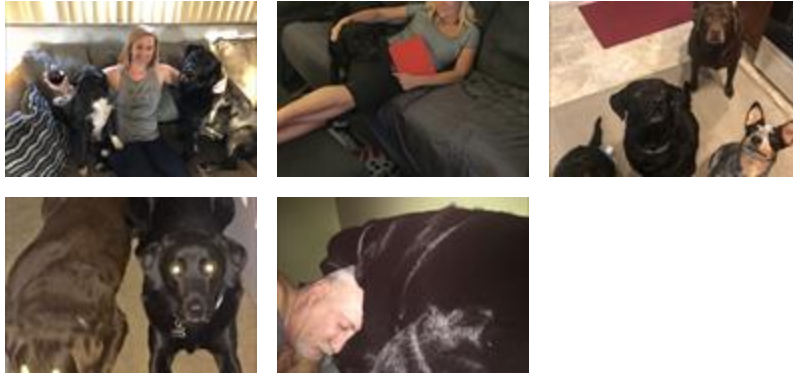

November 2, 2011 - September 12, 2023

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

BE

“ So many good times with June! Such a sweet boy!

Beth - September 18, 2023 at 09:40 PM

RA

“ When June would play with other dogs he would sometimes box them or give them a slap in the face.

Rachel - September 18, 2023 at 09:21 PM

BE

“ when we lived in Greensburg, Ceasar and June would lick dishes in the dishwasher when we had it open. One time Ceasar got the dish rack caught on his collar and started running around with it, they freaked out and after that June was scared of the dishwasher

Beth - September 18, 2023 at 09:09 PM

RA

“ Junie was a beggar! If you didn't watch your plate he would sneak attack it and gobble up as much as he could before you caught him. He would have 4 course meals during parties.

Rachel - September 18, 2023 at 08:47 PM

RA

“ Junior loved going on hikes and loved every chance he got jumping into a body of water. He knew when the streams were coming up and would drag me so he could get there quicker and immediately dive in.

Rachel - September 18, 2023 at 08:42 PM

RA

“ When greeting someone he would have to go between your legs so you would have better access to scratch his butt.

Rachel - September 18, 2023 at 08:30 PM

RA

“ He was the best hide and seek player. I would throw his fuzzy (if I didn't throw it fast enough he would bark at me) when he went to retrieve the fuzzy, I would run and hide somewhere in the house or outside. He loved running around the house searching for me. He would always find me before Ollie.

Rachel - September 18, 2023 at 08:26 PM

RA

“ When he would drink water, he never swallowed the last gulp. He would drip it all over the floor and all over your lap.

Rachel - September 18, 2023 at 08:24 PM

RA

“ He was a little peeping Tom when I would shower poking his head in. Then he would lay on the floor and wait until I was done.

Rachel - September 18, 2023 at 08:23 PM

RA

“ When I would dry my hair he would nudge my arm until I would give him scratches and blow the hair dryer on him.

Rachel - September 18, 2023 at 08:22 PM

MI

“ Junior would always greet me in his special way. Dog sitting and pool days will not be the same.

Mike - September 18, 2023 at 08:06 PM

TL

“ Junie loved his toy fuzzies. Those were his go to toy and loved to be surrounded by them. Always bought you a toy when you came home.

Tyler linn - September 18, 2023 at 07:58 PM

RA

He was always using them as a pillow both inside and outside.

Rachel - September 18, 2023 at 08:00 PM

RA

“ Junie loved going through our dirty laundry and finding our dirty socks. He would proudly carry them around and enjoyed being a “bad boy.” They were the one thing he would not release on command.

Rachel - September 18, 2023 at 07:50 PM

RA

“ Junior was always the life guard at the pool. He would man his post on the pool stairs and if anyone would splash, go under water, or rough house in anyway, he would bark and then come charging at you until you stopped.

Rachel - September 18, 2023 at 07:43 PM