SH

“ Lil Shy, was one of the sweetest babies I ever had. All she wanted was to be loved continuously. She would lay on me and snuggle with me any chance she had, and would follow me everywhere. She would also lay and snuggle with her brother and sister. She had this unique meow where she would sound like she was peeping before she would meow and that is why I called her Peepers. I had her since she was a few weeks old and would sit outside the door and want to come in the house. I miss you my little princess!!
