“ Grandpup, we love and miss you everyday. Jason has your son now his name is "Hamilton" AKA "HAMMY". He looks like "LadyBug" but is a shadow to Jas just like you were. World traver, walks likes you, prefers privacy and a bush to do his business, gentle spirit, well mannered. He has your characteristics even walks like you. Hes a angel. We all love and care for him and thank you for leaving us a part of so much of you. He isnt a replacement but a version of your amazing loving self. We never will stop loving and missing you. But your apart of our souls that will forever walk through each day with us. I thank God for the 12 years we were blessed with you and your uncondition love and being able to give you a wonderful life. We love and misd you always Grandpup. Love, Your Family

He walks just like you and prefers bushes like you for bathroom time 😊. He just had a litter of pups. So your now a grandfather 🐶 You left alot of you with us in " Hammie". You will forever be loved and missed by us all.

“ Grandpup, we love and miss you so much. Sassy really misses you too and doe not understand why you and Hachi Gotti are not at the condo in North Myrtle Beach. It is not the same without you and Hachi here and I can only imagine once back home in May it will be reliving the absense of you all at home both leaving us 3 months apart. Theres nowhere I look I dont remember something you all three did together or your favorite outting spots and running playing together on our beach. You were a perfect angel even on earth. Such a good boy, loving, funny, loyal, protective of your family pack. Your obsession of your daddy and the joy of The Three Musketeers( You, Hachi& Sassy). God blessed our family with a wonderful crew for many years. We were blessed many years with you and you lived a happy, loving and blessed life. You never disappointed is one time in your life and we sure pray we never disappointed you Grandpup. We did our best to give you all the love, adventure and companionship we could always. We hope the gift you were to our lives, that we were equally a gift to yours. You will NEVER be forgotten, not loved and missed by us and you will forever remain apart of our family pack. Rest easy with Hachi & Capone. Enjoy the beautiful kingdom God had prepared for you to enjoy eternal life. We love you Grandpup ALWAYS. Give Hachi Gotti & Capone puppy kisses for us & tell them we love and miss them so much always 🙏
