Lucky was the best cat ever. He was full of personality. He loved milk so much. He would sit by the refrigerator. He used to climb on my shoulder and sit there with his butt in my face. All so he can be rubbed on his back. I'm going to miss him. And I know he will miss us. I hope he is in cat heaven getting milk wasted.

Lucky you were the best pet anyone could have. I remember you killing rats and meowing until you woke me up because you wanted praised. I would say lucky ok pete will get it in the morning. You were rescued when you were very newborn from a railroad car by pete. I remember the day he brought you and prince home. He hated cats and I was shocked when he brought you guys home. Me sherry and dj took turns feeding you guys until you could eat on your own. Oh lucky I could go on and on. I miss you already but you are in heaven with your brother prince now. I can see nick saying lucky one come see your dad. I will always remember you sadly donna
