

Lucy Biancheria

October 2, 2010 - September 18, 2023

Lucy Biancheria of Irwin was born October 2, 2012, which is also the date of her loving Mother's wedding anniversary.

Lucy is survived by her Mother (aka Mommy) Shirley Biancheria. Also survived by Aunt Sherry (Luigi) Guerrieri, Aunt Jan Hutter, several cousins and canine relatives: Gigi, Gucci, Henry, Coco, and Luna. Also by her friend, Arturo, who was her playmate.

Lucy loved to play in her yard. Running, rolling in the leaves, rumbly in the snow, and just lounging near her favorite spot. She enjoyed relaxing outside and watching her Mommy work in the gardens.

Lucy proudly ensured that the neighbors were well aware of her presence. Whether it be her adorable little tail wagging or her charming bark. In addition, the squirrels were always aware of Lucy's presence too!

Lucy loved sleeping with her Mommy and was the BEST bed buddy. One of her favorite rooms was the kitchen especially on holidays. With the holiday aroma, it was guaranteed that Lucy was always there licking her lips and eyeing whatever accidentally fell on the floor!

Lucy and her Mommy's hugs and kisses always messaged:

LUCY was all beauty and absolutely full of LOVE.

It is true to say: I Love Lucy

Thank you extended to K-Vet for her care and Doggy Diva for her beautiful grooming.

“ Rest in peace beautiful Lucy. You were such an angel for all that you had gone through. I'm sure you are running and playing over the rainbow bridge with all your friends. XOX♥
