

Lucy Sapura

May 10, 2016 - March 27, 2025

Lucy was a surprise to Nelly and myself, but oh so loved. She was such a cuddle bug and loved the electric blanket even when it wasn't that cold. She played with the fawns that would come in the yard. Because of her blindness I think she thought they were big dogs.

She will take a part of my heart, but I know she will be happy with Nelly by her side. Love her.