“ Oliver worst, my sweet boy. It's only been two days since your passing but it feels like a lot longer. Missy and Miesha miss you. They keep sniffing around for you. My heart hurts so badly, but I am so thankful to have been your mama. You gave us countless laughs and so much love. I'll miss you until we're together again sweet boy ”

Oh Oliver you were just starting to get used to me... you let me pet you... probably only because you wanted more of my dbl cheeseburger!! It's definitely not going to be the same when I visit your home. Love you always!!
