“ Oreo joined the family in 2011, when he managed to charm his way into Calista’s heart with a big body and a small price tag. Oreo was a social cat who enjoyed toys on strings, attention from family and visitors, and looking out the sliding glass door at the squirrels and birds. When Oreo moved to his home in Jefferson Hills, he blossomed socially and made friends with all humans who visited. Once, Oreo was able to escape out the back door and walked into another apartment and began exploring. Oreo occasionally watched television shows. His favorites were “Better Call Saul” and the 2024 Presidential Debate—seriously.

Oreo is survived by his human sister Calista, his human mom Kim, and two cat sisters, his twin, Sundae, and Viva. His was preceded in death by his furry siblings Toby, Andre, and Rosie.
