Peanut,

I simply don't know where to begin or what to say except thank you! Thank you for picking me 17 years ago and thank you for being my protector and best friend. You were a gift from Heaven that God knew I would need for all these years. I am so grateful you passed in your sleep.

I can still remember the day I got you as if it were yesterday. You filled my life with all the best things in life that money can't buy. I can still see you zooming around the yard after I gave you a bath like you were on a Nascar track. And then you'd come up to me and look like "what?", with your dirty face from rolling to dry off. It still brings a smile to my face. That's why, as out of focus as the picture is, I used it here because it's my favorite. 💞 I remember how fiercely you protected me, as small as you were, from anyone including Tex. I can still picture you always jumping like a jack rabbit whenever I'd come home and how you sat at the front window when I'd leave. I remember the car rides where you would climb up on the back of my shoulders and just watch out the door window. How you always had to be near me and even when I left the yard to go talk to the neighbors, how you would sit at the fence watching for me to come back. So many memories..

I am so blessed to have all these memories to keep me company for the rest of my days. Give your buddy Tex a what for, for me and have fun running free with him. I love you more than words can say my angel. Rest in Peace my sweet angel, until we meet again.....
