“ Penny was a great hunter and loving friend. She loved visits from our grandchildren who showered her with hugs and affection which Penny demanded! Tony and I Miss the morning wake ups , Penny smacking the bed , the sound of her dancing feet on the kitchen floor as she anxiously awaited her food . So gentle so loving, she has moved on to meet her sister dogs at rainbow bridge. Our Beloved girls , Ginger, Sadie, Abby and Penny together again hunting the vast fields of heaven.

“ One time when I was about 7 or 8 Penny started barking randomly and I went to check why. She was warning me that her big sis Abby got out of the house and was on the road almost gonna get ran over. She helped saved her. Penny was a smart girl.
