

Pretty Rodriguez

August 19, 2019 - October 1, 2025

Pretty I never thought this day would be so soon when, I said goodbye to my best friend, my daughter, my other half. 💔🐾

You were more than a dog - you were my comfort on the hardest days, my joy in the quietest moments, my shadow through every season of life. As you took your final breaths, I held you close, whispering how much you were loved....and still are.

You gave me everything, asked for nothing, and left paw prints on my soul that time will never erase.

Run free now, my sweet pretty girl. No more pain, no more waiting. Just peace. 🌈🐾

Until we meet again. 🌟👤❤️
Love Momma

“ Pretty girl my love my best friend my everything nothing has been right since you've been gone in my sleep I feel above my head for you in the car. I miss you behind my back. I love you and miss you dearly. I know I would never get over this. The guilt haunt me and that last look.... the way you looked at me as if you knew you weren't coming back..... you watch over mommy and keep me safe.
