

Randy Polovina Scheirer

June 29, 2014 - February 16, 2025

Randy Polovina Scheirer, age 12 of Bethel Park passed away suddenly on Sunday, February 16, 2025.

Randy was originally from Tipton County Indiana. He is survived by his human parents, Eric and Liz, sister Roxy and human grandma Paula.

Randy had a love of life. He never met anyone he didn't like. We jokingly referred to him as "The Mayor" because he wanted to say hello to everyone he saw on our walks and hikes. He especially loved playing ball. You could always find him with a ball in his mouth, ready to have you throw it to him.

Randy was also a connoisseur of great food. His favorite dish was beef; but he didn't pass anything up.

Randy had an amazing will to live. He fought great adversity in his early years before coming to live in Bethel Park. Randy was the sweetest soul and loved by all who met him. He will be greatly missed.

Tribute Wall

OI

“ DeAnne and I are very sorry for your loss. Randy was a great guy! Every time we would come over, he would meet us at the door with a ball in his mouth for some fetch time!

You guys gave him a great home and he gave you years of love and companionship.

Again, so sorry for your loss.
Otto

Otto Orive II - March 31, 2025 at 04:03 PM

LS

“ I am so sorry for your loss of your sweet boy. He was such a perfect gentleman and loved everyone. He was so blessed to have you as his owners. I pray all the good memories can bring you comfort during this difficult time, We will never forget him. Lisa Sepesy and the Internal Medicine staff.

lisa Sepesy - February 21, 2025 at 11:25 AM

LP

Liz Polovina - February 21, 2025 at 06:56 PM

EA

“ Randy was- hands down- the best behaved Malinois at Pittsburgh Veterinary Cardiology and maybe the only one to willingly wag his tail for us. We adored him.

We never expect to see dogs at their best in the hospital setting, but it was very apparent that Randy was smart, handsome, motivated to please his people, and that he lived a very beautiful life.

My heart truly goes out to you, Liz and Eric. What a huge loss. I promise you we'll never forget your boy.

Erin Anderson - February 19, 2025 at 08:59 AM

LP

Liz Polovina - February 19, 2025 at 03:51 PM

LI

“ I met Liz and Randy in October 6 years ago. He started training at Sit Means Sit to overcome general (severe) anxiety and dog reactivity.

The first day was wild. But, he was calm in the crate at the end of the day :-)

Then Liz said something like “so I can get another dog right?”

Some time later, Roxy came. I’m not sure there could have been a more stable dog to bring into his world.

He and Roxy were with us regularly for years. He would do just about anything for us. Except back up. He was pushy and would challenge anyone for a session or two.

We made so much progress with leadership and boundaries with him. Liz and Eric learned about what could be “trained” and what could be “managed”. He required a lot of patience. Liz had it in spades.

The challenging dogs make us better. Thank you, Randy, for reminding all of us to be calm and patient leaders. His training days were “pants and shoes days” and several new trainers had to learn to work a challenging dog.

We have stories for days because of him. He truly will never be forgotten!

Lisa - February 18, 2025 at 08:40 PM

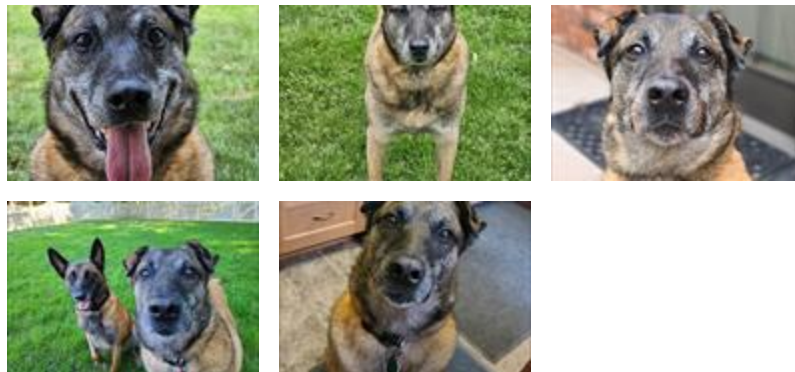

LP

Liz Polovina - February 19, 2025 at 07:20 AM

LP

“ Randy 💕

Liz Polovina - February 18, 2025 at 06:41 PM

LP

“ Randy getting ready for his laser treatment at PT

Liz Polovina - February 18, 2025 at 05:47 PM

LP

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Liz Polovina - February 18, 2025 at 05:44 PM

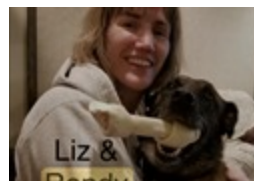

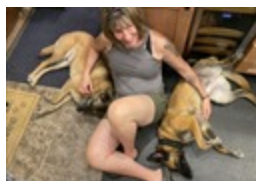

LP

Ball time

Liz Polovina - February 18, 2025 at 06:25 PM

MR

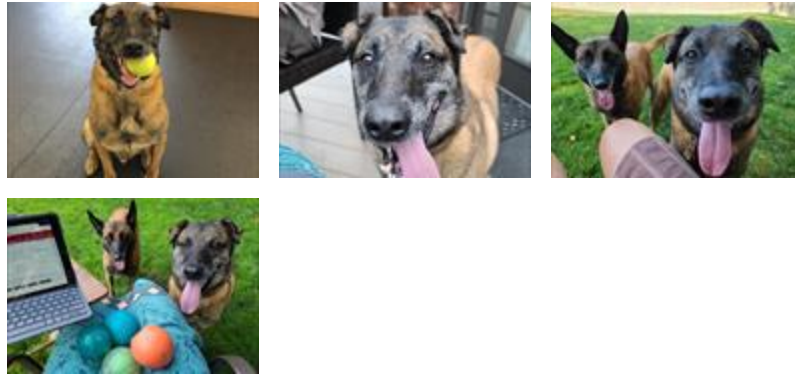

“ I was Randy’s foster before he was adopted by Liz & Eric, I had hi for quite a long time can’t remember the amount of months, when I took him to get vetted we found out he was heart worm positive which was no surprise you could definitely tell Randy had been abused and neglected! Randy was by far and is still to this day my most challenging foster! I’ve never seen a dog with that amount of anxiety in my life, his fear of being left alone or. Crated was through the roof! None of that mattered to. Liz and. Eric they took all measures to help Randy forget his past! The day Randy ad I met them in Ohio I knew it was a match made in heaven and I would not have to worry about him. I went to stay the weekend with Liz, Eric,Randy, & Roxy and I could not believe it, Randy was a different dog! He was so happy, chilled & relaxed! Randy was blessed to have Liz and Eric as his mom and Dad they gave him the life he always deserved! I know he’s chasing ya ball with Jazzy right now 🌈🐾❤️ rest easy buddy

melissa Rhoades - February 18, 2025 at 03:02 PM

LP

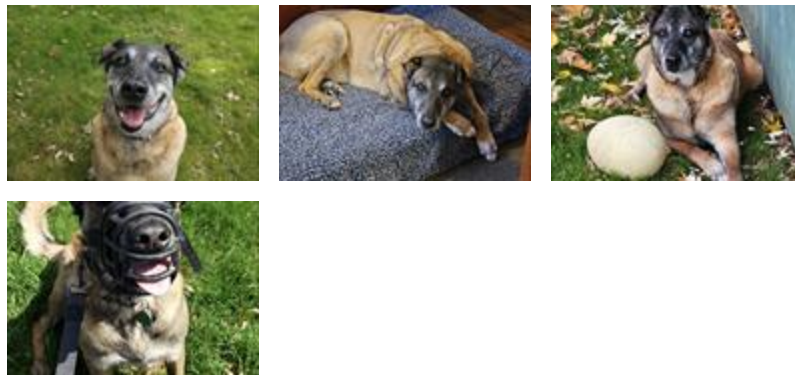

“ Randy loved his ball more than anything else in the world. We would sit outside and he would drop his ball in my lap, then nudge me to throw it for him. We could do this all day ❤️

Liz Polovina - February 18, 2025 at 09:44 AM

LP

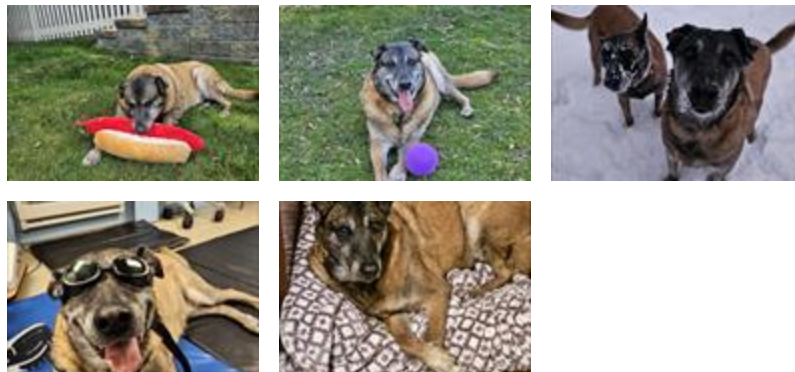

“ 4 files added to the tribute wall

Liz Polovina - February 17, 2025 at 07:20 PM

LP

“ 5 files added to the tribute wall

Liz Polovina - February 17, 2025 at 07:15 PM

LP

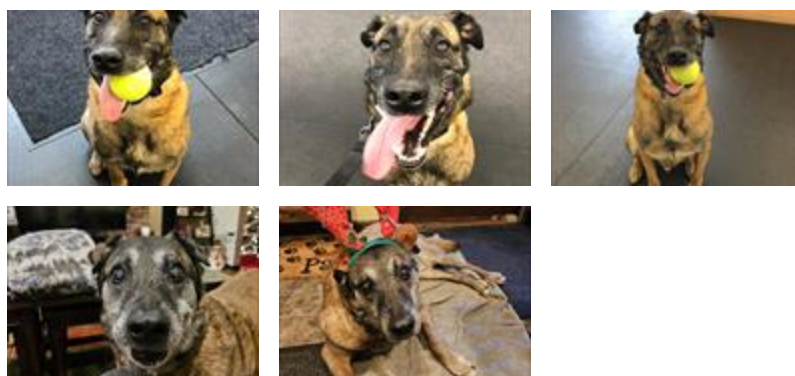

“ 3 files added to the tribute wall

Liz Polovina - February 17, 2025 at 07:08 PM

LP

“ 8 files added to the tribute wall

Liz Polovina - February 17, 2025 at 05:28 PM

LP

“ Liz Polovina lit a candle in memory of Randy Polovina Scheirer

Liz Polovina - February 17, 2025 at 05:05 PM