When an animal dies that has been especially close to someone here, that pet goes to Rainbow Bridge. There are meadows and hills for all of our special friends so they can run and play together. There is plenty of food, water and sunshine, and our friends are warm and comfortable.

All the animals who had been ill and old are restored to health and vigor. Those who were hurt or maimed are made whole and strong again, just as we remember them in our dreams of days and times gone by. The animals are happy and content, except for one small thing; they each miss someone very special to them, who had to be left behind.

They all run and play together, but the day comes when one suddenly stops and looks into the distance. His bright eyes are intent. His eager body quivers. Suddenly he begins to run from the group, flying over the green grass, his legs carrying him faster and faster.

You have been spotted, and when you and your special friend finally meet, you cling together in joyous reunion, never to be parted again. The happy kisses rain upon your face; your hands again caress the beloved head, and you look once more into the trusting eyes of your pet, so long gone from your life but never absent from your heart.

Then you cross Rainbow Bridge together....

Rikki you are my heart & soul. I lived every day for you always, now my life has to try to go on without you. It is so hard each day without you, but I know you are feeling so much better and having the time of your life. I miss you more then words can say. We had that special bond that nobody will ever know or understand. Since you came into my life I loved you with all my heart. Heck I even have you tattooed on me! I keep you close in my heart and know you are with me always. I love you always my baby girl. Words will never explain how I feel about you, so until then you play your heart with all the other animals. Save me a spot my rikki, Shelle loves you so very much furrever
