“ Oh Roscoe, AKA: Bat Dog, Paw, Pawski, Honey Boy, Hunnuh & probably several more, saying goodbye is so hard. Remember the time you were chewing the shock collar off your old buddy Axl's neck? Lol! Such a sweet boy. Comforting each other thru those nasty thunder ⚡ storms. Knocking me on my butt to shower my face with kisses. Putting your head in my purse to find the treats! Unconditional love. The Rainbow Bridge will be such a blast for you! Find Axl and have fun. Crystal, Steve, Mark and I will think of you everyday with love!

“ The sweetest dog I have ever known. It would never get old to peek in the fridge with him every day before I fed him. His ears would perk up and he would smile so big. Long walks at midnight when he was 12 and 13 years old never wanting to stop. It became my favorite part of the day walking at night with him. It's just not the same when I do it myself. His presence lit up the room , all he ever wanted was to be part of whatever you were doing. No matter what he loved hanging out with anyone and everyone. He played tug of war and wrestled up until the last few months of his life. His spirit was so full of life and playfulness. He was the perfect dog. Love you roscoe.
