“ Roxie I already miss you desperately. We couldn't sleep last night without you here. Caesar, Blanca, Stevie and Smokee are so sad without you. You had such spunk and loved to take your walks. Caesar is trying that on his own now. I know that it was hard to breathe in those last days. I am so happy that we got you and gave you the life you deserved. You will always be the queen of this house. I love you sweet girl! Rest easy ❤️🐾🙏🌈

Roxie, you were the queen. You were so lovable and playful. We were so blessed to have u come into our lives. Loved when u would hang out at the pool with me and eat snacks. Ed will miss your bark for treats when he would be outside. We would laugh about it. You will be missed dearly. Say hi to Luck dog in heaven. Luv u Val 🙏❤️🙏

You were a god dog. Always barking before I came in. And didn't stop till I petted you. You will be missed by Caesar and me. 🐕🖥️🙏

Roxie would always bark to let you know that I arrived. She would hang out on the pool deck with us waiting for a snack or a piece of food to fall. She had a great life with you and her fur siblings. Rest in peace, Roxie.

Roxie I miss you already. Every time I go outside I will still hear you barking. I enjoyed you greeting me at the fence in the alley waiting for some snacks. Rest in peace.

Rosie, you had the best human mom in the world, couldn't have been more loved and adored. Keep an eye on her and hopefully you'll meet up with lucky. Someday you'll all be together again! ❤️
