“ Stan was The man, my roommate, and my EARLY AM buddy.you couldn't help but love Stan especially if he would get close to you for a min or two. He was a precious beautiful guy. He will be missed SO much! Words can't express the love he felt. he was lucky to have such a loving family. Amy and Ron I'm so very sorry for your loss. I know he will forever be in your heart. 💜love you...Keisha

“ Stan, Stan, the handsome man was a very sweet boy. He was a lucky kitty to be loved so much and taken care of with such devotion. He will be missed by Kylo and his pet parents, Amy and Ron, and their tribe of close friends.

“ Oh goodness it was so long ago in a land far far away that Stan existed, his motto was don't touch me and I won't scratch you !❤️ hahaha

“ I remember when Stan first appeared. I remember thinking that he was scared being in a new home. Then I realized his perching high in the room or hiding under furniture was his way of doing two things - spying on us and waiting for his perfect moment to jump scare people or other animals and then run away. He was smart, funny and cunning. He was also very loved and loved others. He will be missed so much.
