IN LOVING MEMORY "Our Bernese Mountain Dog Named Tucker"

Tucker passed away peacefully with his devoted family by his side till the very end of his time. Tucker certainly would have wanted it that way and so did we. Even when it became difficult for Tucker to move, he would always make the effort to make sure we were there and sure enough we were.

When Tuckers' health started to decline, we never gave up on our efforts and commitment to being his security and protectors.

We will miss his familiar bark at the door, helicopter tail wagging, and the sound of his morning yawns. Life changes but the unconditional love does not. We are forever grateful for the love, memories, and our lives spent together. We knew the time would come when Tucker would no longer be by our side but we still continued to feel the love bond shared between us.

It is with much gratitude and privilege to be chosen by Tucker to be Tucker's humans.
