

Tuxedo Smith

March 14, 2014 - October 24, 2024

Tuxedo, a cherished companion for ten and a half wonderful years, passed away, leaving behind countless memories filled with warmth, love, and laughter. With his sleek black-and-white coat and his curious, affectionate spirit, Tuxedo was more than just a pet; he was a beloved member of the family.

From playful chases around the living room, to dressing you up, to quiet moments curled up in his favorite spot on the couch, Tuxedo brought joy and comfort to all who knew him. His gentle purrs and loving gaze were a constant source of solace, reminding us daily of the beauty in life's simplest moments.

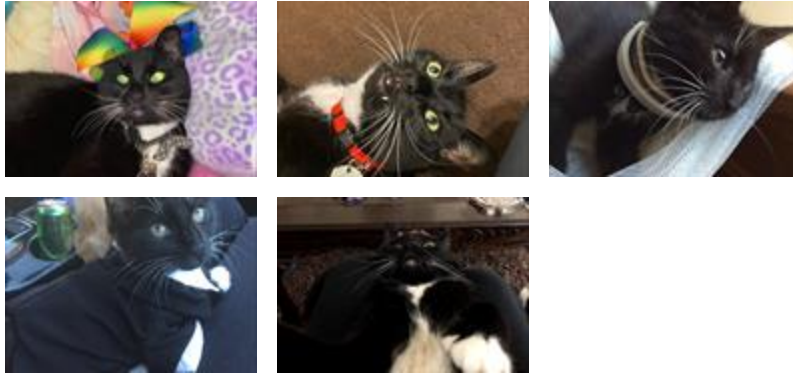

Tuxedo's loyalty, playful antics, and unwavering companionship will be deeply missed. Though his paw prints may fade, the memories and love he shared will remain in our hearts forever.

Rest peacefully, Tuxedo. You were, and always will be, truly loved.

Tribute Wall

TE

“ Tuxedo my first fur baby! You will be missed! <3

Tesia - November 27, 2024 at 10:07 AM

JS

“ No more being scratched for no reason..no more jumping out from around the corner and attacking us..no more hissing at us..I'm sure he was just protecting his home.. his presence will always be felt there..he will be missed though..

Jerome smith - November 04, 2024 at 05:15 PM

EM

“ Ella Mae Madison lit a candle in memory of Tuxedo Smith

Ella Mae Madison - November 04, 2024 at 04:11 PM

JA

“ Jack lit a candle in memory of Tuxedo Smith ”

Jack - November 04, 2024 at 12:12 PM