“ i miss don a lot. he was the best dog ever and my only pet. i grew up with him and he was like another brother to me. my best memories with him are when we would be home alone together and we would "throw parties" when we were just watching tv and making tiktoks. i used to sit on the couch and share food with him when i was eating and he would try to take it off my plate when i wasn't looking. he had so many nicknames like don, donathan, mr cat, and too many to name them all. he was truly the best dog. rest easy mas❤️

“ I have so many memories of my mas too. He was my constant companion and brought me joy every day. Since he’s been gone, I’ve thought of him sitting with me while I do my schoolwork, laying under my desk while I work (sometimes I thought people could hear him snore on my zoom calls), feeding him bits of leftover food. I miss most talking to him throughout the day and his soft snores and night. Today I’ll be going grocery shopping and usually when we bring in the bags, he digs through them to see what I’ve brought for him. I’ve added a picture of him in his favorite spot on the couch. He loved to sit in the sun with a little breeze from the open window.

“ This pic was when I was pug sitting while the family was on vacation. Unbeknownst to me, Vito had a mole on his paw area and I thought it was a tick. Unfortunately I struggled trying to pull at it and the little guy was so patient but looked concerned about the whole situation. It wasn’t long before I asked about it and found out that it wasn’t an unwelcome guest, but a permanent fixture to his body. He never tried to bite me, or even growled. Brave, sweet Vito 🐾🌈

“ So many memories that it's hard to choose one. I would say one of the best was when we took him to the lake house in WV. This hungry herd of deer was harassing us as soon as we got there. I guess the previous lake house renters would feed them. There must've been 10-12 of em. It was annoying. So we let Vito out of the house and he immediately seen the deer and stood his ground barking at em with his chest puffed out. The deer didn't know what to make of him. He then chased the whole herd off. 10-12 deer all scattered from this old pug. It was hilarious!

I enjoyed Vito's company everyday. He was always happy to see me when I would come home from work and I will miss that. He loved his family and we will always love him and the memories. Rest In Peace my good boy. I hope the treats are endless for you in heaven. Keep the couch warm for me. Love Daddy.

“ You were always by your mom's side through every surgery, every time she needed you. Her shadow. You were a beloved member of the family from day one.

“ You were always right there, sweet Vito.
A spot just meant for you.
Now there's a pug size space in our hearts for life,
That's just what special dogs do ❤️
