Oh little Winnebago. What a joyful life you had. You had a momma that loved you so much. You had many adventures and travels! You loved to kiss and you were always extra kooky whenever I was around you. You will be missed!! ?????

Your human sister

My sweetest boy was the best dog I ever could have dreamed for. His life was cut short by disease but our 4 years we spent together were filled with joy, love, adventure, fun and sometimes craziness :) I will carry Winston in my heart always. I will miss you buddy!
